Kenya
Geoff Sayer
An Oxfam Country Profile
Kenya
Promised Land?

above A game of netball at Maili 46 Primary School, Kajiado District

Geoff Sayer
left to right
- Wangui in Uhuru Park, Nairobi
- Cattle returning to their homestead in the evening, Narok District

All photographs were taken by Geoff Sayer, unless otherwise indicated
Contents

A land of contrasts 5
The Great Rift 6
The bones of our ancestors 9
Waterfront to the world 11
Commerce and conquest 16
The Uganda Railway 18
Kenya Colony 19
Independence and after 22
Kenya at the crossroads 25
Tea and tourism—coffee and carnations 27
Smallholders and agribusiness 30
Pastoralism or ‘progress’? 34
Land and poverty 39
Land and conflict 42
Health and education—at a price 44
City in the sky 51
Tales of city life 54
Culture old and new 58
The impact of tourism 60
The promise of prosperity 64
Dates and events 66
Facts and figures 67
Sources and further reading 68
Acknowledgements 69
Oxfam in Kenya 70
from top, clockwise

- Grandma Koko, Ilkimba, Narok District
- Snowy summit on the Equator
- Sunday in Uhuru Park, Nairobi
- Vehicle-repair workshop at Kamukunji jua kali, Nairobi