

From participation to leadership: A resource pack on community-based protection

Summary of resources

Template tools

Community-based protection (general)

- Protection Guidance for CPSs
- Guidance on Community Self-Protection

Sustainability and exit

- Preparing to Exit Communities

Support

- Supporting CPSs

Analyse and plan

- Collecting Demographic Data
- Community-based Protection Analysis
- Protection Service Mapping
- CBP Theory of Change

Mobilize

- Terms of Reference for CPSs
- Selection of CPS Members
- Internal Rules for CPSs

Respond

- Community-based Protection Analysis
- Community Protection Action Plans
- Protection Service Mapping
- Community-led Advocacy
- Early Warning Mechanisms
- Community-led Sensitization

The complete resource pack can be accessed at: <https://policy-practice.oxfam.org/series/resource-pack-on-community-based-protection/>

Contact Melanie Kasmaecker-Wissing for more information: melanie.kesmaecker@oxfam.org

Tools

CAR

- Terms of Reference For CPSs
- Theory of Change for Oxfam's CBP approach

DRC

- Meetings and Coaching for CPSs
- Terms of Reference for CPSs
- Terms of Reference for Listening Clubs
- Theory of Change and Structure of CPSs

Lebanon

- Terms of reference for protection focal points
- Women's groups in refugee communities

Somalia/Somaliland

- Terms of Reference for Community Protection Volunteers

Yemen

- Terms of Reference for CBP networks

Case studies

Bangladesh

- Strengthening trust between refugee and host communities
- Strengthening women's capacity to identify and fight human trafficking
- Supporting refugees with a market-based approach
- Working with communities to reduce risk exposure at night

Colombia

- Community protection structures supported by Oxfam in humanitarian emergency contexts

DRC

- Advocacy with authorities
- Advocacy actions in the village of Mashuba
- Awareness-raising through radio broadcasts in North Kivu
- Capacity-building in the context of community protection
- Football matches between CPSs and local authorities
- How to deal with constant transfers of local authorities
- Integration of pre-existing structures in Katobo and Mutarule
- Interactive and legislative theatre as a means of awareness-raising and advocacy
- Local advocacy for the protection of female sellers
- The early warning system in North Kivu

Iraq

- Community-based protection committees and remote engagement

Lebanon

- A multi-layered approach to promoting LGBTQ rights
- Community lighting project
- From local to global advocacy
- Service mapping by and for the community

OPT

- How the community taught us protection work: Lessons from Gaza

Somalia/Somaliland

- Creating forums for discussion of protection concerns
- Creating safe spaces for women's groups
- Identifying and supporting self-protection mechanisms
- Responding to protection concerns at the domestic level

South Sudan

- Women's empowerment and CBP responses in Lokuronyang

Uganda

- Preventing and responding to gender-based violence

Venezuela

- Community response strategy during the COVID-19 pandemic

Yemen

- Rana, a survivor of domestic violence and sexual abuse
- Supporting community initiatives to ensure their own protection

Recommendations

Colombia

- Building partnerships in community emergencies
- Dialogue with traditional indigenous authorities of the Wayúu people
- Strengthening local humanitarian leadership in La Guajira

DRC

- Accountability and self-reliance/sustainability
- CEDIER's recommendations concerning the partnership
- Recommendations from GADHOP concerning partnerships

Somalia/Somaliland

- Partnership recommendations by KAALO
- The sustainability of community-based protection projects and structures

Narrative

From participation to leadership: A resource pack on community-based protection